delegates and urged their friends to vote for Deneen.

When the seventy-ninth roll call was ordered and Adams county led off with "one vote for Yates and nineteen for Deneen," the wildest excitement prevalled. As the roll call proceeded it became evident that the new combination in Illinois politics would win, but the original Lowden men for the most part remained firm and went to defeat with him. When the call was completed Lowden moved to make the nomination unanimous, and Chalfman Carnon declared the motion carried.

All the pent-up enthusiasm of the delegates manifested itself as Deneen came to the platform and briefly thanked the convention for the honor.

In response to the demands of the assemblage, Colonel Lowden made an address, pledging his support to the ticket. The convention now took up the nomination of a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, but the leaders of the new combination were not prepared for this, and a recess was taken until 8 P. M.

Judge Pritchard Found Nothing in the Statute to Warrant His Arrest.

THE PROCEEDINGS DISMISSED

The State Supreme Court Dismisses Contempt Charges Also Against Robeson Lawyers.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., June 8.—Judge Pritchard, of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, has issued an order releasing Editor Josephus Daniels and putting an end to the contempt pro-Purnell, in which he was fined $2,000 and committed to the custody of the marshal until fine and costs were paid.

The hearing before Judge Pritchard be gan at 8 o'clock, and the order was made at 4:30. Ex-Judge Winston, of Durham, made the argument for Editor Daniels, and District Attorney Harry Skinner stated the position of Judge Purnell, doat the request of Judge Pritchard.

Judge's Statement.

Then Judge Pritchard made this state cerity of the purpose of the distinguished judge in rendering the decision, but after careful examination of section 725, Revised Statutes, I do not find any grounds to support the action. The defendant is, support the action. The defendant is, therefore, ordered released, and the proceeding stopped."

There was no demonstration in the court room, which was packed with spectators. But crowds pressed around the liberated editor to shake his hand and tender congratulations for the victory he had won.

Mr. Daniels went at once to his home, and is to with at his editorial desk and is to-night at his editorial desk directing the newspaper office as though nothing had happened.

Robeson Cases.

An order of Justice Connor concurred in by Justices Walker and Douglas, of the Supreme Court this afternoon dismissed the contempt proceedings against Southerland, Kerr and Carroll, the three men who Judge Peebles ordered to fall at Lumberton for making affidavit charging Judge Peebles with drunkenness in the contempt hearing against the Robeson county lawyers.

The court held that the filing of the affidavits did not constitute contempt,

TAGGART TO BE THE CHAIRMAN

Thought That Gentleman From Indiana Will be Field Commander of Democrats.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8,-Thomas Taggart, of Indiana, will be the chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and the field commander in the battle the Democrats will make against the re-election of Mr. Roosevelt. This is practically certain, of course, if the apparently impossible should happen, and some man other than Judge Parker should be nominated to the presidency,

Mr. Taggart would not be the national chairman, as he is a strong Parker man, but it is now so well assured that Judge Parker will be the nominee that it is taken as an accomplished fact. Taggart is perhaps the shrewdest politician in the Democratic party. He is the idel of the Indiana Democracy. He has been at the head of the party in that State for years, and has never been defeated within the All Apologize.

All Apologize.

Following close upon this dismissal of the three affiants comes the issuance of an order to-night by Judge Peebles adjudicating and settling all differences between him and the Robeson county lawyers. It is on an agreement on the part of the Robeson lawyers to insert in their answer a disclaimer of intention to reflect on the personal integrity as well as the official capacity of Judge Peebles in their failure to set a calendar for the court, the act on the part of the lawyers, out of which the contempt rule grew.

This put an end to the whole proceedings, much to the statisfaction of people in all parts of the State.

Aroused Comment. Aroused Comment.

Aroused Comment.

There is much amused comment here on the fact that the first official act of Judge Pritchard as judge of the Circuit Court of Appeals has proven to be the Issuance of a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of Editor Josephus Daniels, of the News and Observer. The political relations and in many respects the personal relations of the two men have for years been anything but friendly.

Offers to Support John W. Daniel as Virginia's Candidate and Requests Friends to Do So.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, VA., June 8,-The followcommunication appeared in the Staunton Dispatch of this evening: Editor Staunton Dispatch,-Permit me to avail myself of this method of replying to the inquiries I am constantly receiving as to my attitude toward the movement to have the approaching Democratic State convention endorse some Virginian as the choice of this State for a ginian as the choice of this State for a position on the national Democratic ticket. There seems to be a widespread desire throughout the country to have a southern man on our national ticket; and, other things being equal, I believe a Virginian would likely prove stronger than any other southerner. The consideration, however, which should control at St. Louis. is the success of the common couse; to this, all personal ambitions,

Even this, however, should not be done, unless the State convention is heartily agreed upon its choice; a contest over such a selection would be unwise and unseemly, and should in no event be induged in. Many friends of mine in various parts of the State, without any suggestion from me, have done me the great honor of bringing forward my name in this connection, and for this evidence of their kindness and esteem. I feel profoudly grateful. Under no circumstances could I agree to be placed in the attitude of a candidate for such an endorsement to make any contest for it—in fact I could not even accept it, if there is to be any controversy over it in the convention; for, if Virginians are not fully agreed as to their choice of a Virginian, this morning, and the physician gives it as his opinion that the hlow over the head caused his death.

News of the tragedy was immediately sent to Greenville and Sheriff John Crouch, with a posse, went to the scene. The negroes, Vanhorn and Clark, had made their escape before the posse arrived, but the trail of Vanhorn was found, and he was traceked abdut a quarter of a mile into the woods. Here another negro convict guard named Mayfield interfered with the posse and he was shot down in his tracks.

Vanhorn was captured and taken to Leland, fourteen miles distant, where he was placed in the jall. He remained in jall all night under a strcing guard, and at $120 c'olock this morning he was taken out and lynohed by a mob.

While the sheriff and posse were busy with Vanhorn, the other negro, Samuel Clark returned to Sims's store with the intention, it is said, of killing Buck Williams, the other partner, the bookkeeper, named Crow, who was also at work, and others. Crow, however, after the previous shooting had armed himself and also a negro, who wafed about the place, named Aaron Fuller. When Clark made his appearance he was shot by both Crow and Fuller and killed.

It is believed at Trail Lake that the shooting is the outcome of a meeting held in the vicinity of Trail Lake on a negro seret schiety, and that the negroes involved were picked out to do the killing.

(By Special London Times Cable te Times-Dispatch. Copyright, 1904.)

PARIS, June 4.—Private intelligence received in Paris at several different quarters gives gloomy accounts of the growing feeling of discontent and anxiety in Russia over the system of silence that pervades officialdom as to events at the seat of war. Following so closely upon the exuberant reports received and disseminated eagerly during the early part of the campaign, the utter failure of the government to give out any statements either of victory or defeat has proved disquieting in the extreme and has aroused popular misgiving to an almost dangerous pitch.

The effects of the war, moreover, which were not felt for the first three months of its existence, are now being keenly experienced throughout the empire, and are, in fact, a precursory symptom of the grave economic crisis which, it would be puerlie to deny, is likely to affect the entire political situation.

It is, of course, admitted that trade and finance invariably suffer in time of war, but in a country like Russia, where it is doubtful if either are founded upon a substantial basis capable of resisting the shocks of a long campaign, it is comprehensible that the most widespread apprehension should exist.

Officials Declare Germany Has No Diplomatic Contract With Russia Which Is Binding.

Special London Times Cable to The Times-(Special London Times Cable to The Times-Dispatch, Copyright 1904.)

BERLIN, June 4-According to a series of semi-official declarations, there exists no treaty or agreement between Germany and Russia which would bind the former to lend diplomatic support or active assistance to Russia in case of certain eventualities developing in the far East. Commenting on this topic, the Cologne Gasette says:

"The German government certainly cherishes the hope that Russia will become convinced of the Friendly and neighborly sentiments with which Germany will continue to regard Russia throughout the events of the war in the for East."
